

MORGANTOWN, KY - OCTOBER 14, 2018

CEDAR RIDGE SPEEDWAY

Harris and Krup Victorious at Cedar Ridge Speedway. Young 2018 Summit Racing Equipment AMS Champion

The Summit Racing Equipment American Modified Series would conclude the 2018 racing season on Saturday evening at Cedar Ridge Speedway in Morgantown, KY with the 9th Annual Summit Racing Equipment American Modified Series Championship event. Trent Young would collect the $2,000 payday in the first A-Main event and Will Krup would collect the $5,000 payday in the second A-Main event. Trent Young would claim his third series championship in his #10y Pierce Platinum entry.

The first event of the evening would see Trent Young and Josh Harris lead the field to green for the $2,000 to win 30-Lap A-Main event. Young would claim the top spot on the opening lap as Harris would follow closely behind in the opening laps. Towards the mid-way point of the event, Young had established a comfortable lead on the field as Will Krup would charge from his 5th starting position to challenge Harris for second. Krup would quickly claim the second position and would begin to close in on Young in the final ten laps; however, Krup would not be able to challenge Young for the top spot. Young would lead all 30 laps, claim the $2,000 payday, and officially claim the 2018 Summit Racing Equipment American Modified Series Championship. Harris would take the third position followed by Rich Dawson, and Donovan Lodge to complete the top five.

The second event of the evening would see Trent Young and Will Krup lead the field to green for the $5,000 to win 40-Lap A-Main event. Krup would quickly establish himself as the man to beat in the early stages of the event. Young would settle in the second position as Josh Harris was quickly moving to the front from his eight-starting position. As the event reached the half-way point of the event, Krup, Young, and Harris would once again be the three contenders for victory. Young was able to close the gap on Krup while both drivers navigating lap-traffic; however, Young could never seriously challenge Krup for the victory. Krup would lead all 40 laps and claim the $5,000 to win season finale in his #19 Elite Chassis. Harris would take third position followed by Ricky Arms and Brian Shaw to complete the top five.
